

Daily Message from Msgr. Dennis...

May 4, 2020 ~ Monday Fourth Week of Easter

Readings: Acts 11:1-18; Psalm 42:23; 43:3-4; Jn 10:11-18

Dear Parishioners:

Like yesterday, today's gospel is a "Good Shepherd" account reminding us that Christ alone is our hope and protection. We follow the Good Shepherd because He knows us and despite ourselves continues to watch over and love us. We are involved in great spiritual warfare these days and the Good Shepherd assures us that we are protected by His guiding presence. In fact, He loves us so much that he at one time laid down His life in our defense to keep us from being consumed by the wild beasts of Satan's army. Our trust, our hope is in Christ alone. Listen to Him and follow Him for He alone is the Good Shepherd who will bring us safely home.

A Little Humor: (appropriate for kids cooped up at home these days). A Religious Education teacher was discussing the Ten Commandments with her First Communion Class. After explaining the commandment to 'Honor thy father and they mother,' she asked: "Is there a commandment that teaches us how to treat our brothers and sisters?" Without missing a beat, one little boy answered: "Thou shall not kill."
